

David Wade Correctional Center

- 1,174 inmate capacity
- Warden Jerry Goodwin
- Operational since 1980
- Accredited by American Correctional Association Commission on Accreditation in 1992
- Average 99% capacity during all months of 2017
- 368 beds reserved for "Restrictive Housing"
- "Restrictive Housing" inmates are allowed one hour of exercise five days per week and one 10 minute phone call per month
- History of clandestine, combative behavior against third party oversight
- Over 200 Lawsuits against facility during lifetime
- Settled lawsuit over negligent death of inmate tied to chair for 3.5 days
- Blocked Advocacy Center investigators after death of inmate Robert Baltimore
- Multiple allegations of inhumane inmate treatment
- Almost half of inmate population held in "maximum custody"
- Allegations of coercing inmates to withdraw from litigation in exchange for removal from solitary
- Allegations of treating mental health issues with tying to chairs as treatment

